

EMILY MARSHALL DUCHON, MLA
LANDSCAPE DESIGNER
THE GREENWAY COLLABORATIVE, INC.

- EXPERIENCE: 2006 – Present, Landscape Designer, The Greenway Collaborative, Inc., Ann Arbor, Michigan.
- 2004 – 2006, Graduate Student Research Assistant, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan.
- 2006 Summer, Intern, Ann Arbor Greenway Taskforce, Ann Arbor, Michigan
- 2002 – 2004, Geographic Information Systems Specialist, Institute for Fisheries Research, Ann Arbor, Michigan.
- EDUCATION: Master of Landscape Architecture, with honors
University of Michigan, 2007 Sigma Lambda Alpha National Honor Society, ALSA Merit Award
- Bachelor of Natural Resources and Environment
University of Michigan, 2001
- International Environmental Policy Study Abroad Program,
University of New South Wales, Australia, 2000
- AFFILIATIONS: American Society of Landscape Architects, Associate ASLA
Association of Pedestrian and Bicycle Professionals
American Fisheries Society
- RECENT PROJECT EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS: Library Lane Street Design and 3D model (Ann Arbor, Michigan)
Michigan Department of Transportation University Region Bicycle Map
Michigan State University Bicycle Facilities Plan (East Lansing, MI)
St. Clair County Trails and Routes Master Plan (St. Clair County , Michigan)
University of Michigan Flint Student Housing (Flint, Michigan)
- Reimagining Chevy in the Hole: Alternative futures for sustainable brownfield redevelopment. Flint, MI. Master's project for The Genesee County Land Bank. International Federation of Landscape Architecture Jury Award, 2007
- RECENT PRESENTATIONS: 2nd National Low Impact Development Conference, LID on Brownfields, a case study from the Rust Belt, Flint, MI, North Carolina, March 13, 2007
- International Association of Great Lakes Research Annual Conference, Landscape Scale Modeling to Estimate Natural Recruitment of Steelhead to Lake Michigan, Windsor, Ontario, May 26, 2006
- 135th American Fisheries Society Annual Meeting, The Use of Landscape Scale Modeling to Estimate Natural Recruitment of Chinook Salmon to Lake Michigan, Anchorage, Alaska, September 16, 2005